

Maricopa Community Colleges Foundation
George Evans Minority Male Initiative Transfer Scholarship Fund
sponsored by the Helios Education Foundation

APPLICATION DEADLINE – APRIL 17, 2020 , 5 PM

Scholarship Overview

- The purpose of the George Evans Minority Male Initiative Transfer Scholarship is to provide financial assistance to active Male Empowerment Network (MEN) scholars who are transferring from one of the Maricopa Community Colleges to Arizona State University (ASU). Students can attend any of the ASU campuses.
- Scholarship awards are for $1250. Up to three scholarships will be awarded each fall.
- The scholarship funds may be used for tuition, books, or technology needs.
- Funds will be forwarded from the Maricopa Community Colleges Foundation to ASU as a scholarship award.

Scholarship Qualifications

The applicant must:

- Be an active member of a Maricopa Community Colleges MEN Chapter through direct participation in meetings, workshops, events, community service, and conferences (minimum of five activities per academic year).
- Be working toward their first bachelor's degree with intent to seek degree completion at ASU.
- Have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 at the time of application.
- Be accepted at ASU.
